

Defending the State of Åland from overpopulation and crime from immigration

Section 1: Overpopulation Policy.

- (a) To stop overpopulation in the Sovereign State of Åland, immigrating into the nation is restricted. All immigration is illegal.
- (b) This will hold unless the Sovereign State of Åland expands its territorial control to be able to house a larger population. This executive order shall be rescinded once the nation is able to house a larger population.

Section 2: Crime Policy.

- (a) Any citizen that has committed a crime outside in foreign nation will be deported back to the nation which they came from.
- (b) This will be enforced by the Police of the State of Åland and if needed, the Åland Defense Forces can be called upon if the situation is violent such as the person who will be deported has a weapon and intends to use it. The Police of the State of Åland and Åland Defense Forces are allowed to use force.

Section 3: Why.

- (a) The reason for this is to make sure that the nation is not overcrowded by immigrants. Immigrants include immigrants, refugees and migrants.
- (b) The reason for deportation of criminals from foreign nations is to stop the Sovereign State of Åland from becoming a criminal hotspot.

Section 4: How. As stated before, this will be enforced by the Police of the State of Åland and if needed, the Åland Defense Forces can be called upon if the situation is violent such as the person who will be deported has a weapon and intends to use it. If the amount of foreign criminals entering, the president of the Sovereign State of Åland can allocate funding to the Police of the State of Åland.
