

The Kingdom of Liahonia

Office of His Royal Majesty The King

Interim Capital

June 25, 2021
By Royal Decree,

Until the constitution is signed and ratified, the Capital city shall be called the Kingston Administrative District, which may also be known simply as Kingston. This will be an interim capital until the official Capital city is created by the future constitution. At this point, it currently remains unknown what the official capital will be called. It is also unknown when the constitution will be completed. All questions and concerns regarding this decree shall be addressed to the Department of Public Relations.
