

Executive Order 3

Stopping the president from abusing judicial powers

1. To stop the president from abusing judicial powers, a bureau will be founded.
2. The National Bureau of Presidential Investigation will be founded.
3. The NBPI job is to investigate whether the president is abusing judicial powers given to the president.
4. If the president is abusing judicial powers the NBPI gets to remove the current president.
5. The current president gets to suggest a new president where congress can vote on if to do a presidential election or elect the suggested one.
6. The parliament gets to decide how much funding the NBPI gets.
7. The president gets to choose who to be the director of the NBPI.

15 November 2024-President of the Sovereign State of Åland Axel Himberg