

By Royal Decree,

Whereas,

Seeing how the Kingdom of Liahonia requires a formal Constitution, it is desirable that a Constitutional Convention be established.

Whereas,

This Constitutional Convention shall be responsible for writing a formal Constitution, a frame of government, which shall lay forth the fundamental principles and ordinances according to which the Kingdom of Liahonia is to be governed and administered.

Whereas,

The following persons shall be members of this Convention; His Royal Majesty The King; His Royal Highness The Prince David; Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal; and His Royal Highness The Duke of Cougar Mountain.

Whereas,

The Delegates of this Constitutional Convention shall meet regularly until the formal Constitution is completed and ratified.

Whereas,

It is desirable that the Great Seal be affixed to this Royal Decree upon the signature of His Royal Majesty the King.
