

By Royal Decree,

Whereas,

It is desirable that a full record be kept of all the Peers of the Realm.

Whereas,

It is desirable that this record be called the Roll of the Peerage.

Whereas,

It is desirable that this Roll be prepared and kept by His Majesty's Government.

Whereas,

It is desirable that new peers be entered onto the Roll as they are created.

Whereas,

It is desirable that peers be removed from the Roll upon their death or the revocation of their peerage.

Whereas,

It is desirable that the Great Seal be affixed to this Royal Decree upon the signature of His Majesty The King.
