

By Royal Decree,

Whereas,

The Constitutional Convention established by RD-2024-001 and further amended by RD-2024-002 has been repealed by RD-2026-005 and declared null and void.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we form a new body to write a formal Constitution, a frame of government, which shall lay forth the fundamental principles and ordinances according to which the Realm is to be governed and administered.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we call this body The Royal Constitutional Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that the Monarch serve as Chair of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we appoint The Right Honorable The Baron Douangaphaivong to be a member of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we appoint His Royal Highness The Duke of Granite Rock to be a member of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we appoint The Honorable Countess of Pine Meadow to be a member of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we appoint The Honorable Countess of Zinnford to be a member of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we appoint The Honorable Baron Holmes to be a member of this Royal Commission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that the persons appointed to this Royal Commission meet regularly to counsel and deliberate together until the Constitution is completed and ratified.

Whereas,

It is desirable that this Royal Decree be referred to in all legal documents as the Royal Constitutional Commission Decree of 2026, or otherwise referred to as RD-2026-006.

Whereas,

It is desirable that the Great Seal be affixed to this Royal Decree upon the signature of His Majesty The King.
