

By Royal Decree,

Whereas,

The term “persona non grata” is a Latin phrase which means “an unwelcome person”.

Whereas,

It is desirable that we provide for means to declare certain persons to be persona non grata.

Whereas,

It is desirable that these declarations of persona non grata be granted by the Monarch, either by their own accord, or by the advice of persons appointed.

Whereas,

It is desirable that persons declared as persona non grata be forbidden from entering the territories of the Realm for the remainder of that person's lifetime, or until otherwise rescinded.

Whereas,

It is desirable that persons declared as persona non grata be allowed to enter the territories of the Realm temporarily on the express permission of the Monarch by means of a temporary rescission.

Whereas,

It is desirable that persons declared as persona non grata who enter the territories of the Realm in violation of the declaration against them be dealt with according to the laws and procedures of the Realm.

Whereas,

It is desirable that this Royal Decree be referred to in all legal documents as the Persona Non Grata Decree, or otherwise referred to as RD-2026-001.

Whereas,
It is desirable that the Great Seal be affixed to this Royal Decree upon the signature of His Majesty The King.
